Thanks everyone!

Mayor Scott Eisenhauer

Mayor Eisenhauer started by giving a big "thank you, thank you, thank you" to AMBUCS for our community efforts, especially in the development of the playgrounds. He acknowledged the involvement of our club in the Downtown Danville Concert Series and the Challenger League Baseball. Per the mayor, "If you can't be a concert support, be an athletic supporter".

The talk was about neighborhood revitalization. "Neighborhood revitalization is the key to growth of our community through parks and playgrounds, etc..."

Interns will begin staffing Lincoln, Douglas, Elsworth, and Meade parks from 1:30 till 5:00 everyday to coordinate activities for children in the area during the summer. One day a week for each park, children will be bussed to the Municipal Pool for $1.

Every neighborhood should have a neighborhood group. "One voice is a solo, multiple voices are a choir." A stronger voice will get things accomplished quicker.

There are currently two inspectors responsible for keeping the city clean and enforcing codes. Fines for tall grass, etc... are $75 if not addressed within 5 days of notice. Fines will be going up to $300 so take care of your property.
