AMBUCS Notes

64 players have signed up for the new AMBUCS Challenger Baseball League. Looks like the program will be a huge success. Sign-ups happened over the weekend and the league is ready to take the field. Remember, mark your calendars for each Saturday morning in June to come out and volunteer in some capacity. Also, a picnic will be held for the players on June 26.

The Danville Police Association donated $1,000 toward the construction of the new AMBUCS Independence Park, located at Lincoln Park. Also, a bunch of other donations were noted during the meeting, but 'Notes' pen was just not fast enough to jot them all down. There will be a full accounting in future newsletters...

Lisa from the Big 4 Tap stopped by to donate another $1,000 to the club. The proceeds were raised at her establishment during the Barstool Golf Tournament.

Donna Carlton-Vish reported that the AMBUCS Demo Site is up and running.

Donna reminded us that Fall Training will be held at Eagle Creek on October 14 & 15. More info will be available.

AMBUCS Picnic with the Advocates!

It was picnic day for those attending the meeting held at our AMBUCS Playground for Everyone. It was also scholarship/awards day, too.

Angie Carlton announced that Carly Delzell won $700 to the school of her choice (in Carly's case, that's the University of Dayton) toward a degree in physical therapy.

Advocates president Andrew Burnett and Sarrita Scott also won $250 apiece.

Also, Advocates were awarded pins for their efforts. They are: Andrew Burnett, Ashlee Graham, Sarrita Scott, Kara Sanders, Ryan Hansgen, Tamara Page, Brandon Enos, Jackie Smith, Brooke Jackowski, Lauren Hein, Jenna Strader, Chad Taflinger, Sean Bush, Laterrian Duckworth, Rob Showers, Kayla Dillman, Carly Delzell and Samantha Smith.

We are fortunate to have such a dedicated core group of young people at Danville High School willing to help others less fortunate. Thanks to all!
