AMBUCS Notes

Remember to mark your calendars that our annual raffle will be held on Thursday, Oct. 7 @ The Beef House Annex.

Cocktails will be served beginning at 6 p.m. with dinner at 6:30 p.m. Tickets for the raffle are $130.00 which includes dinner and dinner-only tickets are also available.

Phil Ferguson is the chairman for the event, so give him a call and get your ticket now. He's reported that only 30 tickets are left to give out. Be sure, AMBUCS, to sell your tickets and turn in the money ASAP.

Mike Puhr, now Brother Turtle from the Turtle Club having ascended to his office succeeding Mother Turtle Nadine Schramm who's retired, stopped by to make another donation of $750.00 to AMBUCS.

The money represents proceeds from the club's annual 'Turtle Races.' The Turtle Club has dispersed $9,200 to 8 different organizations in Danville.

Bananas

(not in Scranton anymore)

There was no organized lunch program. We did, though, voted to increase membership dues to national AMBUCS by $5.00. So, your quarterly dues will rise from $30 to $35 (duhhh!).

In addition, all new members will pay a $25 application fee that is a pass-through to national. Also, meals have increased $.50 per meal.

There is one other thing: Master Gardener John Bodensteiner brought in a banana. It was grown locally in the Department of Veteran's Affairs green house... which is really weird. The trees have been there the better part of a decade and this is the first fruit they've yielded. Hey, it was very tasty.

AMBUCS (making) License Plates

As part of the AMBUCS Visibility Month, the Decatur chapter is offering an AMBUCS license plate which can be displayed on your vehicle during January and February, 2005; the cost is $30.

Please call Todd or Steve Grunden (Decatur - 422.9916) if you are interested in obtaining a set.
