DHS Advocates Scholarships

The two students selected as Outstanding Advocates for the 2004-2005 school year have shared the responsibilities as Co-Presidents of the Club this year to promote activities for students with disabilities and community service projects for the Advocates Club.

Ashlee Graham has been a member of the Danville Advocates for 4 years. She has been an officer in the club for the past three years, serving as Secretary and as Co-President. Through Ashlee's leadership we have recruited many new students to join the club. She has even given up her lunch period for two years to work in the classroom.

Allison Janesky has been a member of the Danville Advocates for 4 years. She has been an officer in the club for the past three years serving as Program Chair and as Co-President. Ali is dependable and a leader. She too has given up her lunch period for two years to work in the classroom.

Thank you both! Thanks to all the Advocates for an award winning year!

Awards

Our club is a blue chip club with a net of 13 new members. We gave away 20 AmTrykes and started a new project, the Challenger Baseball Team. This is in addition to all of the activities we always done in the past. Wow!

Special thanks to the chairs:

Curt Ellis-Programs
Melissa Bodensteiner-Summer Camp
Bills Fulton & Lori Lyons - Baseball
Jeff Saylor-Summer Sounds
Phil Ferguson - Fund Raiser
Janet Myers - Children's Christmas
Kathy/Cathy High - Adult Christmas
Dale Carlton - Barstool Golf Outing
Richard Woodard - Home Show
Pat Phillips - First Citizen's Banquet

The Danville Project Manager of the Year is Michael Clary for his work with the Challenger baseball league. He was at every game videotaping and then spent hours producing, editing, and creating a wonderful DVD of the teams playing and having fun. It helped our club win first in the Nation with our display at the National Convention.

AMBUC of the Year is a person who has overcome some physical obstacles and yet kept working. She was the right hand to the president this year and represented our club at many of the district, regional, and national events. She was always ready to give a helping hand no matter what the project.

Although this award is only given for the past year of service, her excellent service record goes back many years. This year's winner is Pat Phillips!
Thank you Pat!

Halo Painting Blitz

Halo Painting chair Rachel Davis reported that we have 6 people signed up currently. We need 10 for a team.

Let Rachel know if you can help. The painting date is June 18, 2005. Donuts and lunch will be provided for painters.

Challenger Baseball

Lori Lyons informed us that both of these activities were coming along nicely. We will have six baseball teams with three games each Saturday in June. Sign up now to be a buddy.

Summer Sounds

Jeff Saylor says the weather forecast looks good for June 3, the first Summer Sounds Concert. Sign up or call Jeff to help! The Soul Food band will be playing from 6-8pm.

For more information, including the bands and how you can support this program, visit:
