Hearts and Hands Outreach Suzie Halftown

We saw a video and an NBC news clip covering last year's H2O Community Day event, which was held at Lincoln Park. The organization was expecting approximately 750 people, more or less, but more than 4,000 attended.

The event is so big that it will be held at Ellsworth Park this year on August 27 from 11AM to 4PM. In 2004, people were treated to a hog roast, and give-aways included 60 bicycles, 150 backpacks filled with school supplies, and 11,000 pounds of food.

Along with the free hog roast lunch there will be give-aways of 22,000+ pounds of groceries, 120 bicycles, and 300 backpacks filled with school supplies. There are games and prizes for the whole family.

Hearts and Hands Outreach is a community outreach of New Life Christian Center, 2105 North Bowman Avenue. Those interested in making a donation or volunteering their time can call 431-0018.

H2O Coordinators are Jon and Brittany Neal. The fundraising committee members are Bernice Mattis, 431-1394 and Suzie Halftown, 443-2524.

Summer Camp

Summer Camp will take place the last week of July and the first week of August. AMBUCS meetings will be held at the Grotto those two Wednesdays.

AMBUC of the Day Mimi Saylor

Mimi entertained us with tales of her childhood and her "Princess" days. Unfortunately, 6 siblings later, she lost 'only child' status. Mimi has lived in several towns and, while living in Champaign, she was in a 'practice marriage' and after several years, met her 'Real Marriage' partner, Jeff Saylor, who has also brought two step-daughters into her life.

Jeff and Mimi will soon be married two years. Mimi brought photos of herself (pouting 'coz she had to share the spotlight with a new sibling), her Dad and Stepmother, her Mom and Stepfather, and her wedding, which took place in New Orleans.
