Challenger League

Challenge League is in full swing with the first game each Saturday in June at 9 a.m. More buddies are needed so come on out.

Lose the Training Wheels

The Lose the Training Wheels Camp will have a possible 15 to 20 participants. It's not the 32 to 40 hoped for and may not be enough to bring the camp back to Danville, but it will be wonderful for the children who do attend. If you know of a child who could possibly participate, scholarships are available.

Upcoming Events

Upcoming programs include the High Tech New Wave council of Vermilion Advantage, a program for young people to discuss and design improvements to the riverfront area of downtown on June 14 and a road trip to the Danville Sanitary District on July 21.

Box lunches will be on hand for the road trip. The district office is located on Grape Creek Road, off Perrysville Road. It takes awhile to get there so plan accordingly.

Bob Richard was seeking volunteers to help clean and put away painting equipment after the HALO Paint Blitz on June 17. Meet at the Provena Foundation office, 801 W. Fairchild, around noon to help.

Judge Michael Clary

Our program was Judge Michael Clary showing off his prestidigitation knowledge. At no time did his hands ever leave his arms, although his cold hands down the front of Launie's blouse were a hot topic of discussion.

Michael also made Andy Phillips' wedding ring pass from a glass held by Carol Wade on one side of the room to a position on the magic wand held on both ends by Lanette Cannady.

His trick with the dime called for someone considered possibly stingy and/or frugal. The chorus went up "Bob Richard." The dime came from none other than Bill Garrison and was immediately dubbed possibly the first one he ever earned.

After seemingly to lose the dime, Bill was asked to open boxes that emerged from Michael's pocket. Each of three graduated size boxes were bound by two rubber bands. The third, an old matchbox, contained a small bag, tied with a rubber band and inside the bag. . of, course, the marked dime.

Personal Information Changes?

Will anyone who has changed names, addresses, phone numbers, or e-mail addresses, please contact Pat Phillips, 446-7170 or tanquary@cooketech.net.

Summer Sounds

Jeff Saylor reminded everyone that June 16 is Bluegrass Night with entertainment by the Prairie Dogs. The first concert June 2 featured the Delta Kings and the Temple Plaza was packed. We sold out of beer twice and sold all other beverages on hand by the end of the evening.

Thank you to all AMBUCS who helped set up, bartend and clean up. Some AMBUCS are taking the opportunity to have dinner together at downtown Danville restaurants after Summer Sounds, if you would be interested in joining us, feel free to do so. We don't decided until the concert is almost over so plan on helping to put the chairs back around the tables and come eat with us.

The venue will expand into the North Street parking area for Bluegrass Night. We are anticipating the concert attendance will grow, if the weather is good and we may even have to close off North Street east of the alley and west of Vermilion in the future.

Since our beverage sale was the highest ever, it is also fitting that president Janet Myers in her Daisy Dukes and tube top collected $124 in additional donations.

Just kidding, the city clerk was dressed very appropriately for the weather and the occasion. Andy Phillips and Jeff Saylor and crew took in $61 in tips at the bar to boost our income from the evening.
